

Ulfa killed by Ulfa in Jorhat

Comments 0

editor 26 August 2007 15468 views

Jorhat : Police on Saturday recovered an unidentified bullet ridden dead body from Taraigaon under Borhola police station bordering Nagaland in Jorhat district. According to police, prima facie of the incident hints it to be a fratricide by ULFA.

Locals residing area informed police that a group of five-six armed youth suspected to be ULFA members in civil fatigue came from Myanmar on foot and attacked a comrade on Friday late night who was on a motorcycle coming from the opposite side near Borhola Nagabat. He was killed in the spot and the others managed to flee. The dead body is being kept in Jorhat civil hospital morgue for identification

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Goodbye, prince of melody.....

Healthcare for All: Shushrusha Setu Mega Health Camp in Nazira Constituency

BPF heading for landslide victory in BTAD

10 days training for paramilitary force

WWF India launches digital environment course for students and teachers
