

ULFA, NDFB helping Bhutan rebels

Comments 0

editor 18 November 2008 9282 views

ULFA and NDFB have been helping Bhutan Maoist topple the Bhutanese government if the arrested rebel from the neighbouring country is to be believed. During interrogation, Tenzing G Zangpo picked up in Guwahati in connection with the serial blast told police that they are seeking help from these two main rebel outfits from Assam.

According to the rebel, they are not happy with the Bhutanese government for the Operation All Clear launched to evict the rebel outfits from its soil. He revealed that they think it unjustified to have evicted the Nepalese from southern Bhutan.

In his confessional statement, Tenzing told police that the plan for the explosions was hatched between August and September last year with logistic support provided by the NDFB got the vehicles for the car bombs where ULFA supplied the explosives to be assembled in southern Bhutan.

Tenzing is believed to have told the police team that that ULFA And NDFB were actively supporting the Maoists by supplying them with explosives.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

CDC of Nazira conducts inspection of Fair Price Shops

Rongmei Community Celebrates 7th Cultural and Freshers' Meet in Guwahati

Congress-AIUDF deal finalized

Manas National Park opens for visitors

Link roads inaugurated in Kapahera
