The United Liberation Front of Asom (ULFA) has ridiculed Assam Public Works Director Abhijit Sarma for his remarks on Friday that if ULFA and the NDFB fail to come forward for talks by April Paresh Baruah and Ranjan Daimary will have to forfeit their Indian citizenship.

In a statement issued here on Saturday, the rebel outfit's lieutenant Anjan Borthaku said Sarma is trying his best to grease the palms of army, police and other para military forces engaged in the crackdown against ULFA with the unified command structure. He said the ULFA C-in-C has already shed his Indian citizenship many years ago and that he needs no such citizenship. Same it is in the case of NDFB chief Ranjan Daimary, said the ULFA topgun in the statement.

It may be recalled that on Friday APW director Abhijit Sarma said if ULFA and NDFB fail to come forward for talks by mid April they would have to forfeit their Indian citizenship.
