The Opposition Asom Gana Parishad is holding yet another rounds of unification talk with its breakaway AGP(P), Trinamool Gana Parishad and PLP.

The discussion, which is holding in Dispur is set to finalise the modalities for unification of the state's regional parties. The meeting is also discussing the conditions forwarded by these regional parties.

According to senior leaders of the regional party, after these rounds of discussions, the AGP's unification panel headed by working president Phani Bhushan Chaudhory will submit a report to the party's policymaking body for final approval.

Meanwhile, some leaders here hoped that the entire process is set to be completed by within a period of two months.
