Assam Governor Shiv Charan Mathur on Monday urged the people to extend help the government implement its plans and policies.

Addressing the winter session of Assam Assembly in the morning the governor said his government is committed to implement all the plans and policies to ensure development in the state.

As the governor stood up to address the House, the Opposition members raise to disrupt it alleging the government's failure on all front. The main Opposition AGP members along with other Opposition party members thus created an unruly scene on the floor.

Despite repeated appeal by Speaker Tanka Bahadur Rai, the Opposition members did not listen to him which forced the governor to conclude the speech.
