

Use of Internet for Jobs and Matrimony to go up and increase by 565 crores

Comments 0

editor 26 July 2007 14850 views

New Delhi : Internet is emerging as the most viable alternative for online jobs and matrimony. More than 25 million users are likely to register themselves for online job search and matrimonial alliances resulting in business of around Rs 565 crore by March 2008, according to Assocham. The online market in terms of jobs and matrimonial alliances has increased because of the fact that it is both convenient and economically feasible. It also added that the size of matrimonial advertisement business is likely to grow by 60 pct to reach Rs 136 crore and that of jobs by 75 pct to touch Rs 429 crore in current fiscal. The male, female ratio in case of job seekers was 69 pct and 31 pct.

(AssamTimes encourages its readers to use the classified section for the benefit of our community and region. If required AssamTimes can also ensure that confidentiality is maintained by not revealing names and contact details and responses can be forwarded across. All queries can be addressed to sales@assamtimes.org)

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Arms recovered

Essay competition for students

Programme on pursuing career after graduation held at Doomdooma

Daoharu Mungkhlong trophy match from Oct 1

BTC special session discusses development
