Yet another Assamese youth has fetched pride and glory from Italy. He is none other than Utpal Barua. The artist has drawn no less attention by participating in a unique exhibition of contemporary art in Italy.

Utpal is among the 110 artists who have used different techniques and expressive codes, according to their personal tastes, to recount the history of the Mediterranean nation from 1906.

The Council of Zona 4-sponsored exhibition jointly with the Cultural Association E'-Vento, the event includes paintings, sculptures, installations and videos is being held at Palazzina Liberty, Milan, from August 8 to 29.
