Authors and publishers at a session in the Guwahati Lit Fest on Sunday agreed that a good content management is the secret of a good book. Moderated by veteran publisher Manas Pratim Saikia, the panelists dwelt at length the need of an enlightening book.

In his opening remarks, Saikia said that they always stress a good content management system to come out with a best selling book. But he only to be contradicted by the panelists that good books do not mean only the best selling ones.

Preeti Gill, Simar Punit and Aditi Maheswari participated in the illuminating session.
