The BJP panel set up to probe the voting anomaly in the Rajya Sabha poll is all set to submit its report on Friday.

Senior BJP leaders told Assam Times that the report would be prepared before the state party president for action against the legislator who intentionally got his vote cancelled.

Led by senior leader Mison Ranjan Das, the three member panel grilled all the five legislators to fine out the truth behind the allegations. They include Parasanta Phukan, Ranjit Dutta, Jadav Deka, Manoranjan Das and Dilip Moran.
