Prime Minister Dr Manomhan Singh said that the top priority would be to restore normalcy in the violence-hit areas. Addressing a press conference in Kokrajhar during his hurricane tour to the volatile Kokrajhar on Saturday he said that a probe would be instituted to ascertain the reason behind the clash that claimed 58 lives. "If the conflict has been instigated, the guilty must be punished. The central government will work closely with the state government to ensure this," he said.
