

Wild elephants unleash terror in Guwahati

Comments 0

editor 24 June 2012 10321 views

Once again a herd of wild elephants unleashed a reign of terror in Guwahati on Saturday.

The terror strikes at Lakhora area where around 25 wild elephants who have come down from the nearby hills in search of food destroyed crops besides damaging several huts in the evening. A section of local residents have fled from the spot fearing attack amid darkness. Forest department was informed. It arrived in the spot two hours after to disperse the herd of wild elephants.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

When Justice-for-Zubeen campaign gains momentum

Assam Women Clinch National Tchoukball Championship

গুৱাহাটীত জিলা পৰিষদৰ সভা (৩)

Buffy to distribute sanitary napkins in Nagaland.

Heart awareness rally in the city
