Men-elephant conflict refuses to die down in Assam. After a brief lull, two women lost their lives in two different incidents of attack on men on Thursday.

The first incident took place in Guwahati where a herd of wild elephants trampled to death a 50 year old woman after damaging her house.

The shocking incident took place at Botahghuli area in the city in the wee hours where the elephants suddenly barged into a hut and damaged it after trampling to death a woman who was identified as Phuljan Bibi.

In yet another incident on the same hour, wild elephants killed a 65 year old woman at Kothiatoli in Nagaon district.
