

World Environment Day observed at Rangaloo

Comments 0

editor 6 June 2011 10124 views

Gram Vikas Parishad (GVP) a leading NGO of the North Eastern region in association with Aryabhata Science Centre, Rangaloo; Nagaon observed 'World Environment Day' on June 5. To mark this occasion a day long programme was arranged at GVP's head office, situated at Rangaloo in Nagaon district. The day started with a tree plantation programme at 9 a.m. followed by drawing competition among the school students at 10 a.m. and an open session from 11 a.m. The open session was presided over by Md. Abdul Mannaf, President, GVP. Rangaloo High School's Asstt. Teachers respectively Najmul Ali, Ashwini Kr. Paul and Abdul Hasim, Asstt. Teacher Rangaloo M.E. School were present in the open session. After the felicitation part of the guest invitees and welcome address by Abdul Mannaf, Najibur Rahman, Co-ordinator Aryabhata Science Centre Rangaloo elaborately conveyed the reason behind observing "World Environment Day". He also delivered some informative speech regarding Environmental Hazards and its adverse impact on human life. Post lunch session was included with prize distribution programme followed by a small act presentation on environment by the Staff members of GVP. The day long programme concluded with vote of thanks from the organizers. Approximately 300 nos. of people gathered at the Gram Vikas Parishad premises enjoyed each and every part of the day long events. On the other hand the day was also celebrated by the School for Working Children at Moirabari in Morigaon district run by GVP through tree plantation programme, cleaning operation and an environment related awareness camp.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Hagrama tsunami in BTAD, UPPL, BJP at a loss

Golok Samman 2023 Announced: Four Young Honourees Recognized

Lokdarshan: A Vibrant Folk Dance Extravaganza in Udalguri

Manas National Park Reopens for Visitors, World Tourism Day Celebration Planned

Webinar held: women entrepreneurship and women empowerment
