WWF-India, in collaboration with Samagra Shiksha Assam, felicitated five top-performing schools under the 'Mission Prakriti' programme for 2025-26 at a ceremony in Guwahati.

The initiative promotes environmental awareness among students through themes like biodiversity, water, waste, food, and energy. In Assam, the programme covers over 4,700 schools across all districts.

The award-winning schools include Natun Fatasil Town HS (Kamrup Metro), Sakai Khangia High School (Jorhat), Bishnu Jyoti MES (Sonitpur), PM Shri Jamira HS School (Hailakandi), and PM Shri Gossaigaon Girls HS School (Kokrajhar). Tinsukia district was also recognised as the best-performing district.

Officials highlighted the importance of student participation in environmental conservation, with winners receiving certificates, medals, and trophies.
