The yearlong silver jubilee celebration of North Lakhimpur Press Club concluded on Wednesday with a function held at Tyagkshetra field of North Lakhimpur town in eastern Assam. Addressing the last day function, Lakhimpur district magistrate Debeswar Malakar appreciated the role of local media persons in the mission to make the locality a developed destination in the State.

Miching Autonomous Council chief executive member Dr Ranoj Pegu, while addressing the gathering, commented that the society should accept the criticism from the media with a positive note. Chaired by academicians Dr Manoranjan Pandit, the function was also addressed by Dr Jagadindra Raichoudhury, Dr Arabinda Rajkhowa, Rupam Barua and Nava Thakuria.

The press club president Surajit Bhuyan delivered the welcome address, where its secretary Kumud Baruah and vice-president Sailen Barua narrated various activities of the organization.
