Shreemoyee Asomiya Mahila Samiti (SAMS) organized 'Zubeen nite' at Bunt's Centre, Navi Mumbai on November 28. The event was inaugurated by the chief guests, The Chief Adviser of SAMS & Deputy Resident Commissioner of Assam Bhawan Sri Debasish Sharma, Sri Abani Das, Dr. Tapan Saikia & Sri Shyama Prasad Borthakur, the vice president of Assam Association Mumbai, by lighting the lamp.

Mrs Nibedita hazarika (gen secretary,SAMS) started the evening with the welcome speech and informed the people the cause of the event. The money raised from this event will be spent for the welfare of the society specially for underprivileged women and children. Zubeen Garg, the famous bollywood playback singer and music director of Assam has always taken part in these kind of charity programmes.

Zubeen Garg recently won the 55th National award for best music director for the film 'Echoes of silence'. He was felicitated by Mrs.Bina Saikia(President, SAMS) with a 'gamucha' and a bauquet.

The anchoring for the event was done by famous Assamese actress and dancer Mrs. Barsha rani bishoya.She was felicitated by SAMS joint secretary Mrs. Indrani Borpujari with a bauquet.About 25 cancer patients staying at Assam Bhawan were invited by SAMS to the programme.

Zubeen's performance was rocking and touched the heart of all the audience.

Along with Zubeen's performance , there was a dance performance 'Mangalacharan' by Kumari Bhavya , Comedy programme by famous Mr. Narendra Bhansali and songs by Miss Prarthana Chowdhry. Both of them were felicitated by Mrs Krishna khaund and Mrs Anjana Saikia. The members of SAMS worked really hard for making this event successful. It was a great team work and SAMS is planning to organize more charity shows in the future.
